Recent Happenings

Much is happening here and we're so enjoying life in the Basque Country. We had our annual conference with WEC in March, where we enjoyed catching up with friends (some we've known for over 20 years!), and Jonathan was able to nail down some more details about the Good News Studio idea.

Thanks to Jonathan's torn Achilles, he's made some new friends at physiotherapy, including our local Catholic priest. They chat about everything from Jesuits to Jesus to joy, and in the Good Friday mass and procession, Father Victor said "This is the real Roman Catholic!" (in English!) to Jonathan, and he publicly introduced Jonathan and thanked him in the local fisherman's mass a couple weeks later.

Sarah might be an aspiring writer...as she was studying conditionals in Basque (no small feat!), she wrote out enough sentences to enter into the town literature competition as a poem. She and her teachers were pleasantly surprised that she actually won!

In the school system here, Suzanna finishes the required schooling in June! She's decided to continue with the university-prep course, studying a "general" course load, as she's not yet sure what or where she'd like to study at university.

Though Elaina didn't take part in the school sports program this year, doing horse-riding instead, she was excited to cheer her classmates and friends on to victory in their beach soccer tournament last week. She also enjoyed watching our local professional soccer team--

Donostia's Real Sociedad--win the national title in Sevilla in April!

Spring greetings from Getaria, and we always love to hear from you, too!
