OVERVIEW

- The discipleship lesson given to the church at Philadelphia is that Jesus' love is expressed to us in his provision of access to the Father.

1. PASSAGES TO MEDITATE ON

The following passages were referred to in the sermon. They all deal with being prepared for the return of Jesus at a time that is unknown. As you read pay attention to this context.

- Revelation 3:7-13
- Isaiah 22:15-24
- Philippians 2:5-11
- Hebrews 10:19-23

- John 17:13-15

2. JOURNALING QUESTIONS

Take some time this week to prayerfully reflect on one (or more) of these questions:

- Take some time this week to prayerfully reflect on one (or more) of these questions:
- Describe a time when have you been particularly aware of Jesus' love for you.
- How would you answer someone who asked you how you knew Jesus loves you?
- Where have you experienced the provision, protection, and blessing of God?
- How does the love of Jesus help you endure?

3. PRAYER THEME

This week pray that you might understand more fully the love of Jesus.

4. CREATIVE ACTIVITY

When you are out and about sometime this week, be mindful of doors that are open (or that open for you) and doors that are closed (especially those that are locked). Perhaps take a photo of some doors and share them (and your reflections on Jesus' words about an open door) with a friend.

5. A TEXT TO INTERNALISE
